

Ahmed K. Sultan

Ambitious, motivated & skilled high school senior attending Stuyvesant High School in New York. Interested in software/web development, graphic design, political science, international relations and economics.

EDUCATION

Stuyvesant High School, New York, NY

September 2016 - June 2020

APs/COLLEGE LEVEL COURSEWORK: AP World History, AP Computer Science A, AP US Government & History, AP Comparative Government, AP Macroeconomics, AP Microeconomics, AP Statistics, Software Development, Systems Level Programming, Advanced Journalism, Geopolitics

EXTRACURRICULARS

STUYVESANT MODEL UNITED NATIONS

SECRETARY-GENERAL (President) June 2019 - June 2020

Head of the Stuyvesant Model United Nations club (100+ active members), responsible for overall club logistics and management, and delegate training

StuyMUNC 2019/miniMUNC 2018 DIRECTOR-GENERAL June 2018 - June 2019

Planned StuyMUNC 2019 a Model United Nations conference with 350+ delegates from around the tri-state area, and founded miniMUNC 2018, a novice-oriented training conferences inviting delegates from around the city

StuyMUNC 2018 DIRECTOR OF LOGISTICS June 2017 - June 2018

Responsible for internal and external communication aspects of planning a Model United Nations conference with 200+ delegates from around the city

MEMBER September 2016 - June 2020

Active member of the club, attending several overnight and local competitions every year

THE STUYVESANT SPECTATOR

LAYOUT DEPARTMENT EDITOR December 2018 - June 2020

Managing the Layout Department for the school newspaper, The Spectator

LAYOUT DEPARTMENT MEMBER April 2017 - June 2020

Responsible for helping design the school's highly respected newspaper, The Spectator, which is distributed in high volume throughout the school

STUYHACKS

DIRECTOR OF DESIGN June 2018 - June 2020

Head of the Design department for StuyHacks VII, VIII, and IX — hackathons hosting students interested in technology and programming

MEMBER OF DESIGN January 2018 - June 2018

Member of the Design department for StuyHacks VI, a 24-hour hackathon inviting nearly 300 hackers to create projects utilizing a variety of technologies

DIRECT HEALTH ACCESS

DIRECTOR OF BRAND July 2019 - present

Responsible for creating material for a non-profit dedicated to increasing the accessibility and awareness of healthcare through grassroots campaigns

BLOCKCHAINS FOR SCHOOLS

HEAD OF DESIGN May 2019 - present

Responsible for managing a team of designers, photographers, and marketers for a non-profit aimed toward increasing blockchain education for students in NY, and connecting them to professionals in the field

MENTEE October 2018 - May 2019

Attended workshops throughout the year, with a goal to learn more about the blockchain and technology fields

106 W 117th Street, Apt 3E

New York, NY 10026

(929) 215-8390

asultan00@stuy.edu

asultan.me

github.com/ahmedksultan

www.linkedin.com/in/ahmedksultan/

SKILLS

Microsoft Office Suite

Adobe CC Suite

Programming languages — Python (Flask, Jinja, SQL), Java (APCS A), HTML/CSS, JavaScript (Node.js, MongoDB), Ruby

Communication & public speaking

Graphic/web/UI/UX design

Social media & marketing

Team management

AWARDS

City Council Citation Speaker's Achievement Award, 2016, which exemplifies academic excellence and commitment to public service

Multiple honorable, outstanding and best delegate awards from several Model United Nations conferences

StuyHacks V, First Place Hack

National Merit Commended Student and AP Scholar (College Board)

INTERNSHIPS/EXPERIENCES

Google (Spring '20) — mentorship in software product development

Cryptonomic (Summer '19) — internship at a startup at the forefront of blockchain

Big Sib ('18-'20) — member of the Stuyvesant Big Sibs program, helping incoming students

WCMC Belfer Gene Therapy Core (Summer '17/'19) — lab on the forefront of genetic medicine; worked on paperwork, labs, experiments, and observational work

PASCH German Exchange Program (Cologne) (Summer '18) — spent three weeks immersed in German language and culture

HERO Program (Summer '17) — summer camp program aimed at helping disadvantaged students in NYC

Structure Tone (Spring '17) — 6-week program that covered management and architecture